Course Description
This course introduces learners the region of Middle America from a geographical perspective. The course will introduce students into the methods of geographical inquiry by focusing on the environments and societies of Middle America. This course will place special emphasis on the cultural and transnational geographies of Middle America as well as examine the cultural geographies, environmental histories, and environmental/social sustainability movements.

Course Overview
This course will introduce learners to look at the world from a geographical perspective. This means that concepts of space, place, location, scale, borders, and regions will shape our inquiry. In turn these concepts will help learners describe major characteristics of natural environments, economies, and cultures of the Middle America to identify the main challenges they face today on the path to sustainability and equity. Having a broad and integrative approach to understanding cultural, economic, political, and environmental phenomena will in turn allow for students to develop the critical thinking and reflective skepticism that can lead to environmental and social sustainability.

Course Objectives / Student Learning Outcomes (CLOs) for the BA in Geography
The course is designed to introduce learners to the region of Middle America (Mexico, Central America, and the Caribbean) from a geographical perspective. At the end of the course, learners will be able to

1. Gather, interpret, and assess geographic, demographic, economic, and public health data from multiple sources and points of view to understand Middle America from a scientific and natural world perspective as well as from the perspective of the humanities, economics, history, and the social sciences.
2. Critically evaluate the evidence for Middle America as a cultural region, as well as understand the racial, gendered, and indigenous legacies of the societies of Middle America. Students will analyze and discuss the role that race, ethnicity, class, gender, language, sexual orientation, belief, or other forms of social differentiation play in world cultures or societies.
3. Produce well-reasoned written arguments using geographic, demographic, economic, and public health data. These data will help students analyze the historical, political, cultural, and economic relationships that Middle America has to the rest of the world.
4. Identify and apply the concepts of the Anthropocene, sequent occupance, cultural landscape, urbanization, migration, uneven development, demographic transition as well as concepts found but not limited to public health, anthropology international economics and diplomacy, human rights, to critically analyze models of social and economic development in Middle America and how these have changed over time.
5. Analyze the cultural diversity of Middle America as a legacy of its pre-Columbian societies as well as the different experiences that the countries and ethnic groups within and throughout Middle America in the last several decades. These experiences will be analyzed from orthodox (liberal, World Bank) and heterodox (indigenist, Marxist, feminist, World-System Theory) perspectives.
6. Clearly and effectively communicate about issues associated with the historical development of Middle America. The historical development of Middle America will be analyzed from orthodox (liberal, World Bank) and heterodox (indigenist, Marxist, feminist, World-System Theory) perspectives.

7. Students will also analyze the significance of one or more major movements that have shaped the world's societies, in particular Marronage, Marxism, feminism, indigenism, and major orthodox movements such as public health campaigns.

Suggested Texts and Materials

4. Additional Readings: will be posted on Blackboard

"Latin America and the Caribbean" is optional. If you are a Geography Major or a first-year student, I recommend getting this book to better follow my lectures. "City on a Lake" and other texts are required for assignments. Copies of all texts will be left on Reserve in the Library.

Grade Dissemination
All grades will be posted on Blackboard in a timely manner. Delays to your grades might occur in cases where I may give an extension (to the whole class) or a weather emergency, etc.

Course Policies: Grades
There are no individual extensions for assignments, quizzes, or the final exam UNLESS in the case of a documented medical emergency.

Extra Credit Policy: There will be no extra credit assignments given for this course.

Grades of "Incomplete": No incomplete grades will be given except in cases of extreme circumstances.

Pass/No Credit Option: You have the option to request a grade of Pass/No Credit for this course. To receive this grade, you must submit the request for a Pass/No Credit grade by completing the form linked to the registrar’s website (https://hunter.cuny.edu/students/registration/register-for-classes/credit-no-credit/#instructions). The form must be submitted by 11:59 pm the day before the last day of classes. The decision is irrevocable. To qualify for a Pass/No Credit grade, you must complete all the requirements for the course, including attendance, assignments, exams, and the final exam. To Pass, you must earn at least a D. If you stop attending, stop submitting assignments, and/or do not take the final exam, you receive a grade of WU (Unofficial Withdrawal), which cannot be converted to Pass/No Credit, and may affect your financial aid status.

Email: Please e-mail me ONLY after you have checked Blackboard for any announcements. My e-mail address is rcampos@hunter.cuny.edu.

Course Policies: Student Expectations

Rubrics will be used to grade your Blackboard assignments and class/seminar participation

Please check Blackboard for the different rubrics used for the different assessments used in this course.

1. Most of the papers will require a substantial amount of reading, and much of it from the supplemental texts. Please make every effort to read the second text. Copies will be placed on reserve in the Library.
2. The online quizzes will be placed on Blackboard at the end of each chapter/topic during the first half of the semester. They are meant to assess your learning. They will be based primarily on text material and lecture notes.
3. The mid-term and exam will be based on the supplemental texts and in-class discussions. Please pay attention as to how the instructor and your peers discuss the issues presented from the course material.
4. Although the syllabus indicates that the course will go into depth of three subregions of Middle America in the final three weeks, please rest assured that throughout the semester we will be examining the entire region. Student interest and participation can, of course, lead the discussions and course material to other areas of the region!!! Just ask!!!!
5. You should consider yourself a scholar in this course, not just a student. You will be expected to learn how to produce knowledge, not just receive it. Any lecture period can develop into a seminar format at any time. I encourage you to ask questions and I expect you to answer other students’ question. We always learn best from our peers.
6. Should you need to contact me, please email me at rcampos@hunter.cuny.edu, with GEOG 27000 in subject line and sign your name as it appears in CUNYFirst. I will do my best to respond within 48 hours, except for the weekends, when I might take longer.

Preferred Gender Pronoun

I affirm all forms of gender expressions and identities. If you prefer to be called a different name than what is on the class roster, please let me know. Feel free to inform me about your preferred gender pronoun or if you do not have a pronoun. All people have the right to be addressed and referred to in accordance with their personal identity. In this class, we will have the chance to indicate the name that we prefer to be called and, if we choose, to identify pronouns with which we would like to be addressed...I will do my best to address and refer to all students accordingly and support classmates in doing so as well.

Professor Acknowledgements

1. I acknowledge the stress, anxiety, depression of the pandemic and quarantine (which disproportionately affect female and BIPOC students) and these may translate into:
   - Connectivity Issues & Limited Technology
   - Domestic Abuse
• Food Insecurity
• Unemployment

Please feel free to meet with me individually about challenges and I will recommend or investigate resources.

2. I acknowledge my own set of privileges: lighter-skinned, US-Born, Native English speaker, male, upper middle-class, cis-gendered, able-bodied, and that this may translate into
   • Inconsiderateness while discussing religion, migrant status,
   • Interrupting of students while they speak
   • Dismissal of ideas that are novel or obsolete
   • Normalizing ideas that may be obsolete/violent/exclusive/discriminatory
