

Remembering Rondo: Black embodied a-spatiality and ecologies of refusal in the Twin Cities

Presented by
Parvathy Binoy
Colgate University

The talk draws on oral histories from Black women elders in the historic neighborhood of Rondo in the Twin Cities to conceptualize lived experiences and memories of Black a-spatiality and illuminates the practices of caring for and creating Black ecologies that this inspires.

